*Our fees are calculated based on the number of hours it will take us to carry out this work. The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case, such as:

- The volume of supporting documents and evidence that we need to consider;
- The quality of the draft supporting documents provided by you, the amount of Time required to amend these and the number of amended drafts required;
- Whether face to face meetings with you are required (if you reside in the uk) and the volume of calls and queries from you;
- For global talent visa applications, whether you are applying under the exceptional talent criteria or the exceptional Promise criteria;
- The urgency of your application; whether you have an adverse immigration or criminal history;
- The need to obtain documentation from or liaise with third parties such as accountants or translation companies;
- Whether you are applying alone or with dependants;
- Whether you require advice on your current immigration status.

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence and documentation at the outset of the process to demonstrate that you clearly meet the eligibility criteria, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of these ranges. The estimates are based on the following hourly rates:

Partners and Consultants	£340
Associates	£280
Solicitors	£200
Trainee Solicitors	£120

Fees are excluding VAT at the rate of 20%. VAT may or may not be payable on the above fee estimate as this is dependent on the country in which you reside and you will be advised of this before work on your application commences.

Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as visa fees payable to the Home Office and document translation fees. These are not included in the above estimates. A list of these and their fees can be found here and include VAT. We usually advise you to submit the application yourself and pay these disbursements directly.

What's not included:

- Advice and assistance in the event that an application is unsuccessful, for example advice on alternative options, administrative review, endorsement review, appeals and judicial review;
- Advice and assistance on travelling to and arriving in the uk, police registration, collecting brp and right to work checks;
- Advice and assistance with attendance at home office interviews;
- Submitting the application on your behalf.

What are the key stages in the application process?

- Take initial instructions from you and advise on your eligibility for the visa application;
- Advise on the application process and documentation we require you to provide in draft;
- Review and, as appropriate, amend the draft documentation;
- Collate and finalise the documentation and review the draft visa application form; and
- Advise on submission of the application.

How long will my application take?

Depending on the complexity of your application and the level of support required, we will normally be able to provide the above services to allow you to submit your visa application within 2 weeks of you providing us with the draft documentation. We will inform you at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

The Global Talent (Stage 1 – endorsement) application routinely takes longer than this due to the number of documents to review and versions of draft documents to prepare. We will normally be able to provide the above services to allow you to submit the endorsement application within 6 – 8 weeks of you instructing us. Applications are likely to vary and of course, we can give you a more accurate estimate once we have more information about your specific case.

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office or Endorsing Body will take to process your application. Please read the current processing times for your visa application type here.

Who will provide the services?

Work will be undertaken by our immigration specialists. The work is supervised by an experienced Immigration and Employment Partner or Associate and the work of any trainee solicitor is closely supervised.
